Reflecting Upon

As we journey through high school, many of us meet our life-long friends and even sweethearts. This memorable year especially brought us all together and made the students of Princeton Senior High feel like a family. We mingled during sports and club activities, before and after school, during and between classes, at lunch, and on our own spare time. Whether it was during good times or bad times, we have all watched each other grow, learn, and change. Many times we not only see our own reflections, but the reflections of our peers growing on us. Throughout the years, we have watched one another and never stopped learning from each other.

One Another ...

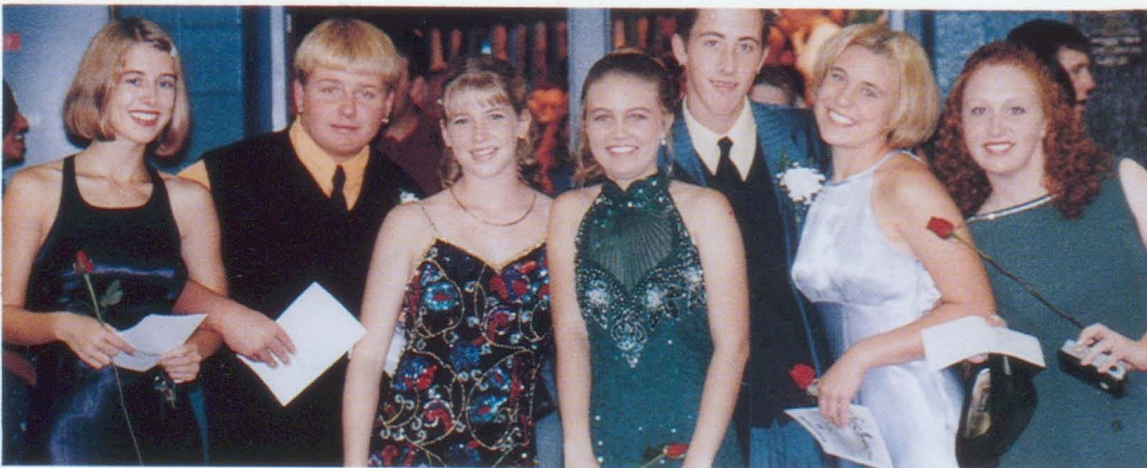

Because our high school years are supposed to be the best years of our lives, many people tell us we should enjoy them while we can. One day, we will all look back and laugh at ourselves and at our peers. For many of us, we are lucky to have made this year one to look back upon and remember good times. As Princeton Senior High expanded with the new freshman class, so did the friendships among us. We have all grown together, accepted one another, and learned from each other, and now, as the century comes to an end, we will carry a piece of everyone forever.

"I Will Be Here"

Homecoming '98 was one of the most memorable nights this school year. On Friday, October 9, activities kicked off early with coronation. Afterwards, attendants anxiously prepared for the big game against the James Monroe Mavericks where '97 royalty Erik Testa and Holley Bailey crowned the new King and Queen: Josh Bradley and Heather Burks. After the game, students sped home to get ready to dance the night away. The festivities — from coronation, to the game, to the dance — provided a full day of glitz, glamour, and fun.

KEY CLUB

Under the direction of co-sponsors Sandi Slavey and Lisa Perry-Shoda, Key Club grew to a membership of over 130! They performed community service projects, including preparing and delivering Thanksgiving food baskets, making and taking filled stockings to the PCH Children's Ward, contributing several hundred dollars to the IDD international fund, donating over 200 items to the inter-club project for the Salvation Army, ringing the Salvation Army bell, helping Kiwanis with the Christmas float, and organizing and running the Red Cross Bloodmobile at PSHS. Also, Key Club hosted the Snowflake Dance, where Steve Johnson and Adria Hairston were crowned King and Queen. To end the year, Key Club held its annual dinner at Roma III to recognize outgoing officers and to induct new officers for the 1999-2000 year.

Look at me; I'm ringing a Salvation Army bell!

It'sa bigga pizza-ria.

Interact members give a thumbs up to Roma for a great pizza party.

Amber proves she really does have a big mouth!

This year Interact members have worked a Spanishburg Horse Show selling pizza, sponsored homecoming candidates Rusty Hawks and Robin Goings, and raised $700.00 (with the help of students, private donors, PSHS clubs and Rotary — our parent organization) to provide medication and disaster relief for Nicaraguans hit by Hurricane Mitch. We supported Heaven Sent Ministries, a Christian/medical relief team. Interact also rang the bell for the Salvation Army (to benefit local families), collected approximately 100 new and used Golden Books for the local Headstart program, assisted with Rotary Pancake Day at the Salvation Army, enjoyed a pizza party at Roma (compliments of Rotary), began an Interact "Friends" program — pairing Interact members with special-needs students to encourage friendship and foster a sense of belonging. At the end of the year, Interact hosted a brief reception to honor departing senior club members.
